Commonwealth of Pennsylvania	Yes	Based upon the conversations on the claims calls, I think this will get Missouri most of what they will need but, as the adjusters pointed out, I agree there will be times when they may not always get what they want if there are places where an injury occurred away from an established address (highways etc...) so I also think jurisdictions adopting this may want to consider trainings to cover these sorts of incidents so they can establish/manage best practices and expectations	Abstain
